EQUIS : one year on,
IESEG School of Management (France) awarded the prestigious
AACSB accreditation

IESEG School of Management – France - awarded the prestigious AACSB Accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

After receiving EQUIS Accreditation in early 2012, IESEG is the only business school in France recruiting students from High School to have these two international accreditations.

The AACSB Peer Review team commended IESEG in six areas: its research clusters; its commitment to student involvement and success; its student services; its leadership; the highly multi-cultural environment and the high level of loyalty to the institution which can be seen in both students and faculty; and its impressive model of student governance and belonging.

IESEG School of Management continues its commitment to academic and research excellence; and to ensure that its graduates are top class international business leaders with a dedication to maintaining the highest ethical standards.

About IESEG School of Management

IESEG School of Management is one of the top business schools in France, ranked 6th in 2012 by leading student magazine L'Etudiant. As a French Grande Ecole and member of the Conférence des Grandes Écoles, IESEG is part of the most prestigious higher education institutions in the country.

It has also been awarded two international accreditations : EQUIS and AACSB.

Established in 1964 in Lille, the school has a second campus in Paris at La Défense, Europe's biggest business hub. Bachelor and Master Programs at IESEG are taught in English.

IESEG collaborates closely with the largest institute of research in Europe, the French National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS). It was recently recognized as the No 2 business school in France for research (EducPro/L'Etudiant 2012). 85% of IESEG's faculty is international, and the school has a network of more than 200 partner universities in over 50 countries.
