

PROGRAMME
EMERGING SCHOLAR CONSORTIUM ON SOCIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL ACCOUNTING
September 22, 2014, Lille

8h45-9h00	Coffee and welcome participants (B252)
9h00-9h15	Introduction (B253)
9h15-10h15	Plenary Session 1 (B253)	Rob Gray	It's not what you do, it's the way that you do it? Of Method and Madness
10h15-10h45	Coffee break (B252)
10h45-12h15	Session 1.A Room (B253) Faculty: Rob Gray & Matias Laine	Mia Kaspersen	The role of boundary setting and boundary maintenance in the construction of social and environmental reporting
		Coner Clune	Stakeholders seeking corporate accountability: The emergence, development and maintenance of capitals in the field of corporate social responsibility
10h45-12h15	Session 1.B Room (B254) Faculty: Robin Roberts & Charles Cho	Marie-Anne Verdier	Opportunistic disclosure behaviors in the context of workforce reductions: Evidence from French listed companies
		Yang Liu	Progress report on longitudinal and cross-sectional study of carbon disclosure strategies: evidence from UK listed companies
12h15-14h15	Common Lunch
14h15-15h45	Session 2.A. Room (B253) Faculty: Rob Gray & Charles Cho	Annelien Baele	How do SMEs make sense of social and environmental reporting?
		Dorothy McAleer	Practitioner Perspectives on Social Audits of Multi-Stakeholder Regulations
14h15-15h45	Session 2.B Room (B254) Faculty: Robin Roberts & Matias Laine	Li Lin	Institutional problems in current Chinese environmental accounting
		Even Fallan	Exploration of resource allocation decision-making demand and stewardship demand for environmental disclosure
15h45-16h15	Coffee break (B252)
16h15-17h15	Plenary Session 2 (B253)	Robin Roberts	SEA Research: A view from the other side of the pond
17h15-17h30	Closing, end of event (B253)
	Informal dinner

CSEAR

Centre for Social & Environmental Accounting Research
Accountability Transparency Sustainability