

Adrien MONTALBO

Ph.D., Economics and Mathematics Sciences, Economics

Associate Professor, Economics

a.montalbo@ieseg.fr

EDUCATION

- 2019 Ph.D., Economics and Mathematics Sciences, Economics, EHESS, France
- 2016 Master, Economics and Mathematics Sciences, Economics
Analyse et Politique Economiques, EHESS, France
- 2015 Agrégation de Sciences Sociales, Ecole Normale Supérieure and University of Paris Sorbonne, France
- 2013 Bachelor, Economics and Mathematics Sciences, Economics, University of Paris I, France
- 2013 Bachelor, Human Sciences and Sociology, Sociology, University of Paris IV, France

COURSES TAUGHT

- Advanced macroeconomics
- Mathematics for business
- Introduction to economics
- Statistical reasoning and quantitative methods
- European economics
- Mathematics for economists

INTELLECTUAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Papers in refereed journals

Published

Montalbo A., (2023), Landholding Inequality and the Consolidation of Democracy: Evidence from Nineteenth-Century France, Journal of Economic History, 83(1), pp. 203-241

Montalbo A., (2022), Primary Education and Economic Growth in Nineteenth-Century France, Cliometrica, 16(2022), pp. 277–332

Montalbo A., (2021), Schools without a law: Primary education in France from the Revolution to the Guizot Law, Explorations in Economic History, 79(2021), pp. 101364

EDITORIAL ACTIVITY

Reviewer in an academic journal

Cliometrica

Political Science Research and Methods

Journal of Economic History