

Grant Douglas
122 rue du Général de Gaulle
59133 Phalempin
France
+33 (0)3 20 90 99 12
+33 (0)6 45 26 09 45
Grant.douglas@icl-lille.fr

Qualifications

November 2004	Certificate in Intercultural Studies, University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada.
October 1991	DEA (M.phil) Language, Literature and Civilization of English-Speaking Countries, Université Charles de Gaulle, Lille 3, France.
June 1985	BA French and Religious Studies, University of Leeds, England.

Professional Experience

September 2008 – present	In charge of the development of intercultural communication/diversity programmes for undergraduate, graduate and professional development at ICL-Clarife, Language and Intercultural Centre of Lille Catholic University, Lille, France.
2005 – 2008	Head of International Relations HEI (Higher Engineering Institute), Lille, France.
1991 – 2005	Head of Languages and International Relations ESTIT (College of Industrial Techniques and Textile Engineering), Villeneuve d'Ascq, France.
1999 – 2005	Project Manager, International Relations Office Lille Catholic University, Lille, France.
1989 – 1994	Lecturer in British history and politics in the English department, Université Lille 3, Villeneuve d'Ascq, France.

Skills and Experience in Intercultural Communication

Creation, organization and implementation of study programmes with an international and intercultural dimension. Co-organiser for 7 years of the ISA-ESTIT Winter Institute of Intercultural Communication. Organiser for 5 years of the ESTIT-ESPAS Fall Institute of Intercultural Communication. European coordinator of the Certificate in Intercultural Studies of the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada. Coordinator for 6 years of the Lille Catholic University summer programmes. Training and consulting for companies. General-Secretary of SIETAR-France (Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research). Qualified IDI administrator. Qualified trainer of the Cultural Detective. Currently teaching on a number of International Masters programmes in different business and engineering schools.