

Mini Workshop

‘How I can improve and speed up writing my papers – an inspiration from creative writing techniques’

Christina Sichtmann, University of Vienna, AT

Thursday, February 22nd, 2018 // 2pm – 3.30pm

Maybe you know these days where you sit for hours but at the end of the day you have just written a short paragraph. On other days you seem to be in a flow and all of a sudden, you put down three pages. This workshop aims to inspire you how you can bring more of these “flow” days into your academic life. The short workshop is designed for researchers who want to reflect their own writing process and make their academic writing more effective and efficient by getting hands-on with some creative writing tools. The focus is on the process of writing rather than the product.

In the first part, you will get to know some methods from creative writing that you can easily integrate into your daily academic writing. In the second part, the concept for a multi-day workshop on Academic Writing will be presented.
