Call for papers

Trademarks in the fashion market.

Trademarks are everywhere around us and are a very strategic tool in different kinds of markets. This is particularly true for the fashion industry. Among the various IP regimes, trademark law has been and remains the “go to” means to protect and project one’s brand.

This year the call for papers is aimed at collecting analysis on trademark law that focuses on this specific market. The fashion industry is a very complex sector where a plethora of trademarks, having various degrees of commercial value and impact, and oftentimes subject to litigation.
