Lille : Room E033, E building – 7 rue Solférino, 59000 Lille

Following the recent news about fraudulent research practices in psychology and behavioral economics, the Marketing Track is happy to host a workshop and an open discussion about new standards on research integrity, led by Mario Pandelaere.

This workshop will address the following topics:

P-Hacking (Causes And Consequences, Solutions)

Selective Reporting

Theory Hacking

(Unconscious) Plagiarism

Transparency

Mario's Personal Ethics

Conflict of Interest In Reviewing
