ABOUT THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Department consists of over 26 full-time academic staff in the areas of Finance. The School provides ample resources to support a variety of research interests and activities (Business Source Complete, WRDS, Thomson Reuters Eikon, Datastream and Bloomberg among others), and has comparative advantage in promoting cross-disciplinary research that is needed in the modern business world. The School maintains an excellent network with overseas institutions for collaborative work. Over the last few years, faculty members have been successful in publishing their research papers in top-tier refereed international journals in areas of (amongst others): risk management, portfolio management, financial econometrics, bid data, market microstructure, asset pricing and high frequency trading.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS

The candidate is expected to show evidence of corporate experience of minimum 5 years and strong teaching skills. He/she will teach at undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate levels and also contribute to the design and pedagogical development of the Department's programs. He/she is also expected to collaborate with the corporate world in the form of consulting projects and executive education.

Applicants should possess a MBA or a Master degree and are expected to continue a professional activity on a part-time basis. Professional certification is an asset. Applicants should be completely fluent in English as courses will be taught in this language. Applicants for the post of Lecturer should have the potential to secure publications in practice-oriented journals, books or case studies. In line with IÉSEG's culture, the successful candidate should display a strong level of team-spirit.

BENEFITS

Employees benefit from French social security benefits, complementary health insurance, a contributory pension scheme and a complementary bonus scheme for high-quality practice-oriented publications and case studies.
