EMPOWERING CHANGEMAKERS FOR A BETTER SOCIETY

EDITORIAL WORKSHOP

BY LIKOEBE MARUPING
GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY
SENIOR EDITOR AT MIS QUARTERLY

THE EDITORIAL WORKSHOP WILL COMPRISE TWO PARTS:

- Best practices and tips for publishing in top-ranked journals (when you are the author)
- Best practices and tips of reviewing and editorial work in top-ranked journals (when you are a reviewer, associate or senior editor).

BIOGRAPHY:

Likoebe Maruping is Professor in the J. Mack Robinson College of Business at Georgia State University. His research is primarily focused on collaboration and innovation in small- and large-scale collectives such as teams, communities, and crowds. His interests in this area pertain to the enabling role of digital collaboration platforms, the mechanisms underlying the collaboration process, and the leadership and governance of collaborative efforts.

Likoebe is currently a Senior Editor for MIS Quarterly. He has previously served as an Associate Editor for Information Systems Research and MIS Quarterly and as a Senior Editor for the Journal of the Association for Information Systems.

Catering for tea and coffee will be provided at workshop.
